Critical information at your fingertips

Building the life you want means more than wealth and money. It means being prepared to meet new opportunities and to adapt when significant life events occur. Having all your financial information in one place can make it easier to deal with the unexpected. This document is designed to be an organizational tool that will help you and your family more easily navigate moments of change. It will also assist you in aggregating all your key financial data and suggests talking points to discuss with a Financial Advisor.

At Merrill Lynch, we can help you face life's financial challenges by taking the time to fully understand who you are and what matters most to you. We believe that a one-on-one relationship with a Merrill Lynch Financial Advisor who understands your situation, your needs and what you want to accomplish—and who now has access to the resources of Bank of America—can help you build the life you always wanted.
