

IRA/IRRA®/SEP/SRA

Substantially Equal Periodic Payment (72(t)) Distribution Form

Use this form to establish Substantially Equal Periodic Payments (SEPPs) from a Merrill:

- Individual Retirement Account (IRA) • IRRA® (Rollover IRA) • Simplified Employee Pension (SEP) plan, or • SIMPLE Retirement Account (SRA)

Important: Substantially Equal Periodic Payments can only be distributed in cash. You must have available cash in your account within 15 days of the scheduled distribution date.

Modifying Or Terminating SEPPs

You cannot modify your SEPPs by changing the balance of the IRA from which you've begun taking your SEPPs. If you modify your SEPPs, the IRS may determine that all of your SEPPs, including those already taken, are subject to both the 10% penalty and retroactive interest on the penalty.

■ You cannot distribute more or less than your annual calculated amount. Each year, you are required to receive a Substantially Equal Periodic Payment. Please note that distributions systematically rejected for insufficient funds will be considered a modification.

■ You cannot make contributions, asset transfers, or rollovers to the IRA. If the balance of the IRA changes (except for investment gains or losses and your SEPP withdrawal), after you begin taking SEPPs, the IRS considers that to be modifying payments.

■ You cannot change the IRA from which you withdraw your SEPPs. If you start taking SEPPs from one IRA, you cannot decide later that you want to take them from another IRA instead. While you can separately calculate and begin taking additional SEPPs from a second IRA, you must continue taking SEPPs from the first IRA for at least five years or until you reach 59½, whichever is later.

Exceptions for terminating or modifying SEPPs:

- You may terminate your SEPPs early due to disability or death, or when your account balance is depleted.
- If you are using one of the two fixed-payment calculation methods, you may make a one-time, penalty-free switch to the required minimum distribution method.

Any modifications of your payment schedule may result in tax penalties. Please speak with your tax advisor before modifying your payment schedule. In addition, you can refer to the "Understanding Substantially Equal Periodic Payments" fact sheet for a more detailed description.

For nonperiodic payments, the default withholding rate is 10%. You can choose to have a different rate by entering a rate between 0% and 100%. Generally, you can't choose less than 10% for payments to be delivered outside the United States and its territories. See page 7 for more information.

Complete this line if you would like a rate of withholding that is different from the default withholding rate which is 10%. Enter the rate as a whole number (no decimals). See page 7 for the 2025 Marginal Rate Tables. You may use these tables to help you select the appropriate withholding rate for this payment or distribution. Instructions on how to best use them are included.

Withholding Notice

Federal income taxes are required to be withheld (subtracted) from your distribution at a flat rate of 10% unless you provide us with alternate withholding instructions for this transaction. State income taxes will be withheld according to the specific requirements of the state in which you reside. You must use this form to instruct us whether you want income taxes withheld from distributions you will receive from your retirement account. Certain states require that you complete their state form to opt-out of state taxes when your distribution is subject to federal income taxes. To determine your state's requirements, please refer to the supplemental State Tax Withholding Rate Document. Even if you elect to not have federal and state taxes withheld from your distribution, you are liable for payment of federal and state income taxes on the taxable portion of your distribution.

How to choose not to have taxes withheld.

If you do not want any federal taxes withheld from your distributions, follow the instructions above in Part 3 (Withholding Election) on this Distribution Form and sign at the bottom. Your selection will also serve as an election not to have state taxes withheld from your distributions. If you do want state taxes withheld, check the appropriate box and indicate the applicable state withholding rates. If you do not make an election, we will assume you choose to have federal and, if applicable, state income taxes withheld from all distributions.

Changing your choice.

You can change your withholding election at any time or as often as you wish by completing the appropriate federal and state tax withholding sections.

Estimated taxes.

Under Internal Revenue Service Rules, if you choose not to have federal income taxes withheld, or if the amount withheld from your distribution is not sufficient, you may be responsible for paying estimated taxes each quarter. When your actual taxes for a year are determined, you could incur IRS penalties if your estimated federal income tax payments were not sufficient. You may incur similar tax penalties under state law.

| | | % |
| | | % |
| | | % |
| | | Total 100% |

Notes:

- Liquidation will only occur from the funds you have authorized. If a selected fund does not have sufficient value to cover the allocated percentage, the order will be restricted to 95% of the market value of the fund to minimize the risk of an order execution in excess of the available amount under volatile market conditions. The remaining unfulfilled amount will be liquidated proportionately from the other specified funds. If the amount is still unavailable, the system will use available cash/cash equivalents to fulfill the distribution.
- Contingent deferred sales charges (CDSC), redemption fees, and/or transaction fees may apply and result in insufficient funds to process the requested distribution.
- Clients currently enrolled in Managed Products are not eligible for automatic liquidation.

Part 6: Signature

Please sign and date the form and return it to your Merrill Lynch Wealth Management Advisor or the Merrill Advisory Center or if you are a Merrill Edge self-directed investing client, return it to the Investment Center.

I acknowledge that I have reviewed the information entered above and have read the terms of the Merrill retirement plan from which I am taking the distribution and the Withholding Notice and my instructions comply with those terms.

I hereby authorize Merrill to initiate distributions from my Merrill IRA, IRRA, SEP IRA, or SIMPLE IRA in the manner specified within this form, on a recurring basis, after income-tax withholding, if any, and upon such schedule as I have instructed. I also authorize Merrill to distribute the funds as directed by my instruction from my Merrill retirement account to another Merrill non-retirement account, to me by check, or to another financial institution via Automated Clearing House (ACH).

I agree that Merrill will not perform a scheduled distribution if the dollar amount of the scheduled distribution is not available in one or a combination of the following accounts: cash credit balance, money market mutual fund shares, or Retirement Asset Savings Program account balance. I agree that it is my responsibility to ensure that timely instructions are given to Merrill so that such amounts are available to be distributed as scheduled.

I agree that this authorization and my withholding elections will remain in effect until either expires, per my instruction, or until changed by completing a new distribution form.

If electing ACH distributions, I authorize the financial institution holding the bank account to accept ACH transfers to my account without responsibility for the correctness thereof. I agree that Merrill will not be liable for any loss, liability, cost or expense for acting or failing to act upon my authorization, except to the extent required by applicable law. I authorize Merrill to initiate debit or credit transfers to correct erroneous transfers, to the extent permitted by law. (I have reviewed this form in its entirety, and hereby certify that all information as it appears is correct and may be relied upon by the custodian.)

Note: The rules governing distributions can be complex, and you might be subject to taxes based on your distribution. We urge you to consult your tax advisor or attorney for further guidance. I understand that if the distribution is made payable to a third party payee, I will be responsible for any taxes that are due as a result of these requested or recurring distributions.

By signing below, I am stating that: (i) my Substantially Equal Periodic Payments are calculated pursuant to an IRS-approved method; (ii) I understand that distribution must continue until the later of five years from the date of the first distribution or until attainment of age 59½ ; and (iii) I have not relied on Merrill for tax or legal advice.

SEPPs and Tax Reporting

Early Distributions for clients enrolled in the Merrill SEPP Service who also meet SEPP requirements will be reported on IRS Form 1099-R with the following reason code in box 7:

- '2' ("Early distribution, exception applies") for clients under age 59½
- '7' ("Normal distribution") for clients age 59½ and older

Early Distributions for clients enrolled in the Merrill SEPP Service who have modified the current payment stream will be reported on IRS Form 1099-R with the following reason code in box 7:

- '1' ("Early distribution, no known exception") regardless of age
- Other reasons for Merrill NOT to report the "early distribution, exception applies" on IRS Form 1099-R:
 - If you transfer your primary or any of your related SEPP accounts from Merrill to another financial institution for a year in which you are scheduled to or already have received Substantially Equal Periodic Payments, Merrill will not report the exemption from the early distribution penalty.
 - Distribution requests systematically rejected for insufficient funds will be considered a modification to the Merrill SEPP service. Please see Modifying SEPPs for further detail.

Aggregating Account Balances

You may choose to calculate your annual SEPP based on the account balance of a single account or you may choose to calculate your annual SEPP based on the account balances of multiple Merrill IRA, IRRA, SEP or SIMPLE retirement accounts with the same social security number. The latter feature is known as aggregating. In this case, your annual SEPP calculation would be based on the combined account balance of all those accounts designated as part of the SEPP relationship. The accounts remain separate but the balances are combined for the purpose of calculating the annual SEPP distribution amount. In an effort to monitor and track the activity of the entire SEPP relationship, each account must be enrolled in the SEPP Service. Only those accounts designated as part of the SEPP relationship will be monitored. If you maintain other IRA, IRRA, SEP or SIMPLE retirement accounts that are not designated as part of the relationship, those accounts would not be subject to any SEPP Service restrictions.

You have two options for aggregating account balances:

- One account must be designated the primary account. SEPP distributions would only be paid out of that account. The related accounts would be set up to distribute $1 annually in excess of the annually calculated amount; or
- One account must be designated the primary account and all others would be designated as related accounts. Each account will distribute an amount designated by you (all amounts must total the annually calculated SEPP distribution amount) and paid based on the selected frequency.

Clients electing to aggregate their account balances may transfer funds among the primary and the related accounts in order to meet distribution requirements. Transfer requests will only be allowed if the accounts are designated as part of the SEPP relationship on this form.

If one of the combined accounts has activity that violates SEPP guidelines, all of the accounts, including the primary, would be terminated from the service and all distributions for the current year would be reported as "premature, no known exception." IRS Form 1099-R would reflect code "1" in box 7.

Special rules may apply for required minimum distributions. We urge you to consult your tax advisor for further guidance.

General Instructions for IRS Form W-4R Withholding Certificate for Nonperiodic Payments and its substitute.
Please complete Part 3: Withholding Election above to document your withholding rate election.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4R, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4R.

Purpose of form. Complete Form W-4R to have payers withhold the correct amount of federal income tax from your nonperiodic payment or eligible rollover distribution from an employer retirement plan, annuity (including a commercial annuity), or individual retirement arrangement (IRA). See page 2 for the rules and options that are available for each type of payment. Don't use Form W-4R for periodic payments (payments made in installments at regular intervals over a period of more than 1 year) from these plans or arrangements. Instead, use Form W-4P, Withholding Certificate for Periodic Pension or Annuity Payments. For more information on withholding, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Caution: If you have too little tax withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty unless you make timely payments of estimated tax. If too when you file your tax return. Your withholding choice (or an election not to have withholding on a nonperiodic payment) will generally apply to any future payment from the same plan or IRA. Submit a new Form W-4R if you want to change your election.

2025 Marginal Rate Tables

You may use these tables to help you select the appropriate withholding rate for this payment or distribution. Add your income from all sources and use the column that matches your filing status to find the corresponding rate of withholding. See page 2 for more information on how to use this table.

Cat. No. 75085T

Form W-4R (2025)

Nonperiodic payments—10% withholding. Your payer must withhold at a default 10% rate from the taxable amount of nonperiodic payments unless you enter a different rate on line 2. Distributions from an IRA that are payable on demand are treated as nonperiodic payments. Note that the default rate of withholding may not be appropriate for your tax situation. You may choose to have no federal income tax withheld by entering “-0-” on line 2. See the specific instructions below for more information. Generally, you are not permitted to elect to have federal income tax withheld at a rate of less than 10% (including “-0-”) on any payments to be delivered outside the United States and its territories.

Note: If you don't give Form W-4R to your payer, you don't provide an SSN, or the IRS notifies the payer that you gave an incorrect SSN, then the payer must withhold 10% of the payment for federal income tax and can't honor requests to have a lower (or no) amount withheld. Generally, for payments that began before 2025, your current withholding election (or your default rate) remains in effect unless you submit a Form W-4R.

Eligible rollover distributions—20% withholding. Distributions you receive from qualified retirement plans (for example, 401(k) plans and section 457(b) plans maintained by a governmental employer) or tax-sheltered annuities that are eligible to be rolled over to an IRA or qualified plan are subject to a 20% default rate of withholding on the taxable amount of the distribution. You can't choose withholding at a rate of less than 20% (including “-0-”). Note that the default rate of withholding may be too low for your tax situation. You may choose to enter a rate higher than 20% on line 2. Don't give Form W-4R to your payer unless you want more than 20% withheld.

Note that the following payments are not eligible rollover distributions for purposes of these withholding rules:

- Qualifying “hardship” distributions;
- Distributions required by federal law, such as required minimum distributions;
- Distributions from a pension-linked emergency savings account;
- Eligible distributions to a domestic abuse victim;
- Qualified disaster recovery distributions;
- Qualified birth or adoption distributions; and
- Emergency personal expense distributions.

See Pub. 505 for details. See also Nonperiodic payments—10% withholding above.

Payments to nonresident aliens and foreign estates. Do not use Form W-4R. See Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities, and Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens, for more information.

Tax relief for victims of terrorist attacks. If your disability payments for injuries incurred as a direct result of a terrorist attack are not taxable, enter “-0-” on line 2. See Pub. 3920, Tax Relief for Victims of Terrorist Attacks, for more details.

Specific Instructions

Line 1b

For an estate, enter the estate's employer identification number (EIN) in the area reserved for “Social security number.”

Line 2

More withholding. If you want more than the default rate withheld from your payment, you may enter a higher rate on line 2.

Less withholding (nonperiodic payments only). If permitted, you may enter a lower rate on line 2 (including “-0-”) if you want less than the 10% default rate withheld from your payment. If you have already paid, or plan to pay, your tax on this payment through other withholding or estimated tax payments, you may want to enter “-0-”.

Suggestion for determining withholding. Consider using the Marginal Rate Tables on page 1 to help you select the appropriate withholding rate for this payment or distribution. The tables are most accurate if the appropriate amount of tax on all other sources of income, deductions, and credits has been paid through other withholding or estimated tax payments. If the appropriate amount of tax on those sources of income has not been paid through other withholding or estimated tax payments, you can pay that tax through withholding on this payment by entering a rate that is greater than the rate in the Marginal Rate Tables.

The marginal tax rate is the rate of tax on each additional dollar of income you receive above a particular amount of income. You can use the table for your filing status as a guide to find a rate of withholding for amounts above the total income level in the table.

To determine the appropriate rate of withholding from the table, do the following. Step 1: Find the rate that corresponds with your total income not including the payment. Step 2: Add your total income and the taxable amount of the payment and find the corresponding rate.

If these two rates are the same, enter that rate on line 2. (See Example 1 below.)

If the two rates differ, multiply (a) the amount in the lower rate bracket by the rate for that bracket, and (b) the amount in the higher rate bracket by the rate for that bracket. Add these two numbers; this is the expected tax for this payment. To get the rate to have withheld, divide this amount by the taxable amount of the payment. Round up to the next whole number and enter that rate on line 2. (See Example 2 below.)

If you prefer a simpler approach (but one that may lead to overwithholding), find the rate that corresponds to your total income including the payment and enter that rate on line 2.

Examples. Assume the following facts for Examples 1 and 2. Your filing status is single. You expect the taxable amount of your payment to be $20,000. Appropriate amounts have been withheld for all other sources of income and any deductions or credits.

Example 1. You expect your total income to be $65,000 without the payment. Step 1: Because your total income without the payment, $65,000, is greater than $63,475 but less than $118,350, the corresponding rate is 22%. Step 2: Because your total income with the payment, $85,000, is greater than $63,475 but less than $118,350, the corresponding rate is 22%. Because these two rates are the same, enter “22” on line 2.

Example 2. You expect your total income to be $61,000 without the payment. Step 1: Because your total income without the payment, $61,000, is greater than $26,925 but less than $63,475, the corresponding rate is 12%. Step 2: Because your total income with the payment, $81,000, is greater than $63,475 but less than $118,350, the corresponding rate is 22%. The two rates differ. $2,475 of the $20,000 payment is in the lower bracket ($63,475 less your total income of $61,000 without the payment), and $17,525 is in the higher bracket ($20,000 less the $2,475 that is in the lower bracket). Multiply $2,475 by 12% to get $297. Multiply $17,525 by 22% to get $3,856. The sum of these two amounts is $4,153. This is the estimated tax on your payment. This amount corresponds to 21% of the $20,000 payment ($4,153 divided by $20,000). Enter “21” on line 2.
