6. Investment Change Option

When you change your Designated Beneficiary, a new investment election may be made for your NextGen Account balance and for future Contributions. If you do not make a selection below, existing balances and future Contributions will continue to be invested in the Portfolio(s) you previously selected. Investments in an Age-Based Portfolio will be automatically reinvested in a new Age-Based Portfolio based on the age of the new Designated Beneficiary.

For full or partial transfers, the investment change instructions below will apply to the Designated Beneficiary identified in Section 1 of this form. If you would like to change the investments for the Designated Beneficiary for whom you are transferring assets to, a separate Investment Change Form must be completed.

Note: Upon receipt of properly completed paperwork, investment change requests may take up to five business days to process. - Any state-based benefits offered with respect to a particular Section 529 college savings plan should be one of many appropriately weighted factors to be considered in making an investment decision.
- You should consult with your tax or other advisors to learn more about how state-based benefits (including any limitations) would apply to your specific circumstances and you also may wish to contact your home state, your Designated Beneficiary's home state or any other 529 college savings plan to learn more about the features, benefits and limitations of that state's 529 college savings plan.

<sup>1</sup> NextGen Savings Portfolio: Capitalized terms used in this paragraph are defined in the NextGen College Investing Plan Client Direct Series Program Description. The portion of the underlying deposits in the Bank Deposit Account that is attributable to the Units held by a Participant in the NextGen Savings Portfolio is (a) eligible for FDIC insurance coverage of up to $250,000 per Participant (calculated on a basis which aggregates that portion of the underlying deposits attributable to the Units held by the Participant in the NextGen Savings Portfolio with all FDIC-insured assets held by the Participant at the Bank) and (b) for purposes of FDIC insurance coverage only, considered to be held in the same ownership capacity as a Participant's other single ownership accounts held at the Bank. However, Units of the NextGen Savings Portfolio are not insured or guaranteed by the FDIC or any other agency of state or federal government, FAME, the Bank or the Program Manager, nor does a Participant have a direct beneficial interest or the rights of an owner in the underlying deposits in the Bank Deposit Account. Participants are responsible for monitoring the aggregated value of the portion of the underlying deposits of the NextGen Savings Portfolio attributable to the Units of such Portfolio held by a Participant plus their other deposits held directly with the Bank, for purposes of the $250,000 FDIC insurance coverage limit. Deposits held in different ownership capacities, as provided in the FDIC rules, are insured separately. UGMA/UTMA Accounts are generally treated as assets of the Designated Beneficiary, and other types of trust Accounts may be treated as assets of the trustee, for purposes of the FDIC limit. Custodians of UGMA/UTMA Accounts and trustees of trust Accounts should consider how these assets will be treated for purposes of the FDIC limit.
