IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Contributions resulting from a rollover from another state's Section 529 Plan, Coverdell Education Savings Account, Series EE or I Bond deposits must be accompanied by a statement, check stub or letter from the losing account's letterhead showing the breakdown of principal and earnings for the rollover contribution.

¹ Third-Party Contributions: Persons other than the account owner who make contributions will have no subsequent control over the funds contributed to a NextGen 529 account. Only the NextGen 529 account owner will receive confirmation of account transactions and may direct transfers, rollovers, investment changes, withdrawals and change the account beneficiary (as permitted under federal law). Third-party contributors may subject NextGen 529 account owners to tax consequences. NextGen 529 account owners and third-party contributors should consult their tax advisors to discuss income or gift tax consequences.

² Contribution Limit: Any amount that exceeds the maximum contribution limit for the designated beneficiary will be rejected and returned.

NextGen 529 is a Section 529 plan administered by the Finance Authority of Maine. Before you invest in NextGen 529, request a NextGen 529 Program Description and Participation Agreement from us and read it carefully. The Program Description contains more complete information, including investment objectives, charges, expenses and risks of investing in NextGen 529, which you should carefully consider before investing. You also should consider whether your home state or your designated beneficiary's home state offers any state tax or other state benefits such as financial aid, scholarship funds, and protection from creditors that are only available for investments in such state's 529 plan.
